

Roots and Wisdom's Fall 2009 Toddler's Program

Wee Ones on Wednesdays

Wednesday, September 23 and Wednesday, October 7, 2009

10:00am – 11:00am

at the Roots and Wisdom Gardens in Schenectady

Roots and Wisdom is offering a hands-on garden program for toddlers (ages 3-5) and their caregivers on Wednesday mornings this fall.

- September 23 – Potato Harvesting - Vale Cemetery Potato Field

Learn about the different varieties of potatoes and how they grow, experience the fun of picking potatoes, and take home a bag of spuds. (Roots and Wisdom's Potato Field located at the Vale Cemetery Brandywine Avenue entrance – plenty of parking available – please do not use State Street entrance.)

- October 7 – Putting the Garden to Bed – Fehr Avenue Garden

Discover how we prepare the garden for winter. Come collect seeds and harvest some fresh herbs to add to your family's favorite soup or pasta sauce. (The Fehr Avenue Garden is adjacent to Central Park, across from the Park View Cemetery.)

Plan to get dirty and have fun! Dress appropriately.

Enrollment is limited to 20 toddlers. Registration taken on a first-come-first served-basis.
